

SCHOOL YEAR FUN AT SOLEL

Join us at Temple Solel's Anne Arditti Early Childhood Center, where we nurture and educate children through a blend of secular and Judaica learning designed to meet each child's physical, emotional, intellectual and social needs.

Our curriculum is based on the belief that children learn best by actively taking part in their learning. The curriculum meets the children's interests, needs and family cultures, while providing the building blocks to continuing development. The goal in our school is to help the children discover 'the magic of play.'
