

Temple Solel

Join us for Martin Luther King Jr. Shabbat
Nigerian Jewish leader, Remy Ilona, speaks on
“THE SECRET DIASPORA: THE STORY OF THE JEWS OF NIGERIA”

FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 2017

7:30 pm

With live music by the “Solel Band” and the “Solel Singers”

Remy Ilona is of Ibo (or Igbo) extraction, and is one of international Judaism’s main advocates of Jewish ethnic diversity.

Remy is a lawyer, and a historian of the Ibo, one of the three largest ethnic groups in Nigeria, and is the author of eight books about the Ibos and their Jewish connections. Currently, he is in Miami, studying with distinguished Professor Tudor Parfitt, and is working as a graduate assistant at Florida International University, Miami, and as a Jonathan Symons Fellow at the Jewish Museum, Miami Beach, Florida.
